HONGKONG, MONDAY, MAY 11, 1891.

As a transcendent exhibition of blatant toadyism, cant, and undiluted twaddle we commend our readers to a study of the "Praise-God Barebones" proceedings at the meeting of the Mercantile Marine Officers' Association of Friday last. The meeting was apparently called by Captain SAMUEL ASHTON and his associates to render thanks to the Almighty, coupled with Sir WILLIAM DES VŒUX (we quote from the Chairman's speech), for the passing of the Sunday Working Cargo Ordinance. The worthy Chairman commenced by informing his audience that "He felt bound to confess that the passage of the Bill was somewhat of a surprise to him." We can support him in this at all events, for we happen to know that until this journal undertook its advocacy, Captain ASHTON, in despair of getting the measure passed within any appreciable period, had frankly admitted that he had actually given the reform up as a hopeless job. We claim no particular credit for the line of action this journal has taken from the beginning; for it was a matter of justice as well as duty to support a measure for the benefit, mark! not only of the "deserving class,"—the phrase was ours, not Governor DES VŒUX's —but for the moral, social and sanitary benefit of the community at large. The part played by Mr. J. J. KESWICK in this matter, as claimed by Captain ASHTON, may or may not be correct, and we only ask here if it is not capable of a contrary construction.
But we do say and most emphatically that, if there is one thing more certain than another (and the last acts of Sir WILLIAM DES VŒUX confirm our view to the letter), it is that the hurried passage of this Bill was really not due to any revelation of opinion in his Excellency's mind as to the advisability of the measure, but rather to a baser and more unworthy influence, namely, that of chagrin, if not of vindictiveness towards an influential section of this community. We are sorry to have to admit this, for no one received fairer treatment at our hands than Governor DES VŒUX; but we are honestly bound to the opinion that his final official acts conclusively showed him to be at his best but a shallow and vindictive man, with a littleness of mind and character disqualifying him from administering the Government of any important community.
We likewise confess to not being surprised at Sir JAMES RUSSELL, in his cut-and-dried enlogio on the departing spirit, considering Sir WILLIAM DES VŒUX a strong Governor, for, as we have previously said, his Excellency was a "good hater," and in this, if in nothing else, the Chief Justice found a faithful coadjutor.
The Sunday labour question from the outset found, comparatively speaking, an overwhelming opposition both from official and unofficial sources in this colony, including the Governor of Hongkong, as well as his Excellency of the Straits Settlements—vide their consultations with Lord KNIGHTSBRIDGE—but we did not hesitate to give it the unqualified support of this journal, and we have assisted in every possible manner, and at no inconsiderable sacrifice, in encouraging the movement to be kept to the fore as well as originating the principle of licensing so as not to make the working on Sundays altogether prohibitory in important emergencies. Therefore it is with great regret that we perceive an institution possessing elements of influence and benefit, degenerating almost at its start into a "Praise-God Barebones" association with a vengeance, and it certainly, as the Chairman stated, is not going to hide its light under a bushel, or for the matter of that, its cant either, in this particular respect. It is indeed lamentable to witness this "deserving class," a term implying intelligence and common-sense, making such egregious lick-spittles of themselves as they did at Friday's meeting.
Such displays, we can assure them, add nothing to the dignity or reputation of the Association, and certainly will detract, if persisted in, from its sphere of usefulness and influence. Moreover, we have no hesitation in characterizing such conduct as out of keeping with what is generally understood as the attribute of the term "British sailor," for if there is one characteristic the British tar has reason to be proud of more than another, it is that of manly, straightforward independence, without conceding to lick official or unofficial shoes, and it is because we don't wish to see this proud reputation be-embellished in Hongkong mud that we have felt constrained to write on this subject so strongly. We have no hesitation in saying "God bless Sir WILLIAM DES VŒUX," but such an expression, twice repeated, was in more than doubtful taste from the Chairman of the Hongkong Marine Officers' Association. And when Captain ASHTON was thus ridiculously belauding his Excellency, and the other members of the Association were loudly applauding Pharisaical expressions which will only amuse the initiated, we would like to know why the name of the Rev. A. G. GOLDSMITH, the sailors' friend, the man who actually initiated the crusade against Sunday labour in this colony, was entirely forgotten!

A DIMINUTIVE Chinaman, named Lau Achee, who is a familiar figure about the Police Station, was charged this morning before Mr. Wise for being drunk and disorderly yesterday. The defendant, it appears, was lost to sense, and after being refused admission, he made a disturbance, which resulted in a European constable taking him to the Station in his arms. He was fined $1.

THE Hongkong Rifle Association competition was held on Saturday last for the Short Range Handicap Cup and Range Spoon; 15 members competed. Bandmaster M. Hill, who shot for the first time as a member of the Rifle Association, won the Cup and 300 yards range spoon with a

"THE MILITARY MUMMERS," who have been under a cloud for some time past, have risen like the proverbial phoenix. This popular dramatic club has been re-organized, and with such old stagers as Capt. Clayton (President), Garrison Sergeant-Major Meredith (Vice-President), Colonel Jarrard (Treasurer), and Staff Sergeant Tennant (Stage Manager) at the helm, it should enjoy a renewed lease of prosperity, and provide lots of capital entertainment both for the garrison and the community at large.
"The Mummies" will make their public reappearance at the Carlton Theatre on Thursday and Saturday next, in Palgrave Sloper's drama "Daddy Handker," and Charles Selby's well-known farce "Catching an Heiress." Further particulars will shortly be announced.

THE Agents (Messrs. Dowell, Carill & Co.) inform us that the steamship Moray left Singapore for Hongkong this afternoon.

It is officially notified that Monday the 18th inst.
(White Monday) will be observed as a holiday in the Government departments of the colony.

INTERESTING TO JURORS. In the trade mark case Brooke & Co. vs. the China Import, Export and Banking Company, in respect to a goat's head, both parties, in Supreme Court assembled this morning, agreed to leave the matter to the decision of seven good men and true.

THERE are rumours of trouble brewing in regard to the steamer Tai-on, lately put on the opposite night service to Canton. Some question as to the vessel's right to fly the British flag is involved, and so far as we can learn there is a possibility of the vessel having to be re-christened the Tai-put.

SHANG PINO, who was charged at the Police Court last Friday with being concerned in breaking from the chain-gang at Lap-sap-wan on the 16th June, 1888, was committed for trial by Mr. Wise at the Police Court this morning.
Half-a-dozen turnkeys gave evidence of identification, and the prisoner reserved his defence.

THE Fiftieth Ship says that the wreck of the Turkish frigate Ergürlü, has been raised.
The Grand Chamberlain wrote to the Wakayama Kencho for an account of the way in which it was done, and for photographs of the religious service conducted at Oshima-mura at the beginning of the month, for those who perished in the ill-fated ship.

ANOTHER of our gallant "petticoated protectors" was charged at the Magistrate's this morning for being drunk and assaulting P. C. Holt, yesterday evening. The constable said that Sandy was very riotous, knocking over a ricksha and two coolies and then dislocating the constable's middle finger in throwing him to the ground.
Mr. Wise imposed a fine of $5, with the alternative of fourteen days.

DISURBANCES may be anticipated in the Lochow Islands, where two bodies of malcontents exist. Some of these are shishoku who complain that no Government subsidies were granted them, and who are on the brink of starvation, and starving men are difficult persons to argue with. The others are shishoku of Kume-mura who say they are Chinese and not Japanese subjects, and object to being placed under Japanese rule.

THE EMPEROR WILLIAM paid a visit on April 1st to the Vulcan Shipbuilding Yard at Stettin, where the giant steamer Great Britain is being completed for the Hamburg-American Company.
The Chairman of the Company, Mr. W. Nissen, of the firm of Messrs. Siemens and Co., conducted the Emperor through the palace-like rooms of the beautiful steamer, and the distinguished visitor is said to have been highly astonished to find such excellent accommodation.

COMPETITION in the life of business—though it sometimes kills the passenger. Two opposition boats, the Danish, Konyu-Maru, and the Ingawa-Maru, raced through the Inland Sea on the 28th ult., and the former was being overhauled when suddenly a steam-pipe burst, killing three firemen outright and wounding two others, as well as twelve passengers. The Ingawa-Maru went to her assistance and took off her passengers, the disabled steamer afterwards being towed into Mitajiri.

INSPECTOR QUINCY, supported by two stalwart Scottish members of the Police force, made a clever capture on Saturday, after a desperate struggle, of an alleged murderer and braggart who, as chief of a gang, has been long wanted to answer for his misdeeds in Tung-kong district, and who it is alleged made this colony the base of his nefarious operations. The detectives, who received several blows on the hands and wrists whilst effecting the arrest, securely conveyed their captive to the Central Station. He was remanded for a week by Mr.
Wise at the Police Court to-day.

RAILWAY enterprise in Siam survives cholera and commercial depression, apparently. A railway from Bangkok to Paknam is projected, the capital of $16,000 being already subscribed. It is expected that the rice-raising and fishing centres will be thus brought within easy reach of the London of Siam. In other words the hoot of civilization is making itself apparent in the Land of the White Elephant.
A hundred German telephones were received recently, the electric light is being installed, and the country is being energetically pushed on, and they've got a Lord Mayor.

THE Hon. Treasurer of the Alice Memorial Hospital begs to acknowledge with thanks the following donations to the funds of the Hospital:— Jas. J. Francis, Esq., Q.C. $50
A. J. David, Esq. 25
S. Balf, Esq. 10
Hon. N. G. Mitchell-Innes 10
J. Dyer Ball, Esq. 5

Li Hong Shi, Esq. 5
C. F. A. Sawyer, Esq. 5
J. Wong Chim, Esq. 5
J. Mahomed, Esq. 2

Leung Tsan, Esq. 2

A CURIOUS charge was made by Tsang Hai, a silver-smith, against Lok Kwei at the Police Court this morning, before Mr. Wise. The complainant said he had employed the defendant to remove some ancestral bones at Shan-ki-wan on March 2nd, and the bones were not found.
The defendant, who was a Chinese, was forthcoming a fortnight after, he went to Shan-ki-wan and inquired of the defendant what had been done with the late lamented. The defendant said he had placed him in Chinese territory, but would regain him on payment of $4. The complainant promised to pay that sum when he was in possession of the dust, and the defendant, receiving thirty cents for boat hire, departed. In the meantime the complainant saw F. A. Sawyer, and the bones were not found. The defendant was charged with being guilty of the offence, and he was accordingly discharged.

THE London and China Express of the 10th ult., in dealing with the prospectus of the National Bank of China, Limited, says:—"The Bank has been formed at the instance of the leading native Chinese merchants of Hongkong, and the principal Treaty Ports of China, to meet the demands of the Chinese mercantile communities of these places for an institution of their own which will afford them the mercantile facilities for conducting their business by modern methods.
It will not in any way be inimical to existing foreign undertakings, as it will principally work through native channels of trade. Telegrams have been received announcing that the issue of $300,000 has been largely over-subscribed for in China, and that of the allotments made in Hongkong 25 per cent. have been made to Chinese.
The founders' shares are reported at $1,000 each, buyers. It is intended that the premium of 10 per cent. shall be paid in cash, and the balance shall form the nucleus of the reserve fund, after paying the incidental preliminary expenses."

THE returns of the number of visitors to the City Hall Museum for the week ending May 10th, are:— Europeans 235, Chinese 1,736; total 1,971.

WE shall have to look into the records of our local lawyers if this sort of thing keeps on. A Japanese native paper says that a Hokkaido (Bachelor of Law) named Murayama was wanted some ten years ago by the police on account of some very shady transactions. His accomplice Ohara was arrested and punished, but Murayama escaped. Recently the late legal adviser to the Hawaiian Government, named K. Katsura, died, and on inquiries being made as to his antecedents it was found that he was the identical Murayama, the Japanese criminal of ten years ago. He is now buried at Tokyo.

WHAT'S this? the clergy going back on V.ctoria, by the grace of God, etc., etc. At a public lunch held at Tavistock, Devon, the other day, in connection with the thirtieth annual assembly of the Devonshire Congregational Union, the Rev. M. P. Davies, pastor of the Tavistock Congregational Church, who presided, intimated that he could not conscientiously propose the toast of "The Queen," and he called on the Rev. G.
B. Johnson to do so, and added that he might also propose the health of the Prince of Wales and all card-players and gamblers. The Rev.
G. B. Johnson then proposed the toast of "The Queen," paying tribute to Her Majesty's virtues as a constitutional sovereign. A verse of the National Anthem was sung, Mr. and Mrs. Davies remaining seated. "The Gracious" had better design after this, to avoid the customary unpleasant month's notice.

The Union Jack had better be hauled down from where it proudly flutters over various parts of this colony, and the Yellow Dragon run up.
We gave an instance of the Chinese Customs officials' despotism last week, but if what we hear to-day is true our own shores are no longer sacred. A Hindu on board the Kangaswari to-day was found to be in possession of some $50 or $100 worth of silk on which he had not paid export duty at Canton. It was therefore seized by the Customs officer, who intended no doubt to take it on board the cruiser usually stationed in Castle Peak Bay. The vessel was away, however, and he came on to Hongkong. And on arriving at the wharf here, in British jurisdiction, he transferred the stuff to the Fatsan, despite the protests of the owner that he had no jurisdiction. An application to the Police for protection was, for some extraordinary reason, refused!

A MEETING to protest against the opium traffic in India and China was held at London on April 4th in the Friends' Meeting House, Holloway. The chair was occupied by Mr. George Gillett, who delivered an address against the opium traffic. After some additional remarks by Mr. Maurice Gregory, Mr. John Collings moved the following resolution:—"That this meeting in view of the great evil done to the people of India, China, and Burma, by the traffic in opium, protest against the apathy of the English Government in not speedily suppressing the trade, and thereby removing the cause of much distress in India, China, and Burma." Mr. Benjamin Broomfield, secretary of the China Inland Mission, seconded the resolution, which was unanimously carried. At the close of the meeting a petition was numerously signed, which it was intended to present to the House of Commons, in view of Sir Joseph Pence's motion, which, we have been assured, by wire, was abandoned by that back-boned reformer after having been actually carried by a substantial majority.

WE note the arrival from Bombay by the English mail steamer Ravenna of Mrs. James Brown Potter, the famous American actress, and Mr. Kyrie Bellow, probably the best funny business man on the English stage. Mrs. Potter and her arrangements in Bombay to bring a high-class comedy company for a short tour through the Far East, but at the eleventh hour unforeseen difficulties arose, and that oft-quoted saying of Robbie Burns' about the "best laid schemes o' mice and men" was disappointingly realised.
However, the accomplished artist, whose united perseverance and natural talents have won for her in a few short years a position as a dramatic star of the first magnitude that usually occupies half a life-time to attain, had made up her mind to see China and Japan, and so she came on to Hongkong. We believe that no definite arrangements have yet been made as to the form of entertainment in which our distinguished visitors will make their debut before a Hongkong audience, but their energetic manager, Mr. T.
V. Twining, has been carefully "prospicifying," and doubtless full particulars will be shortly announced. If an efficient orchestra were available—and no doubt there is more than sufficient musical ability in the colony if our amateur instrumentalists can only be induced to leave the hot weather for the love of art—the five great scenes from "Romeo and Juliet," with orchestral accompaniment, would form a programme to attract an audience from the coolest retreats of the Peak. Mr. Kyrie Bellow has the reputation of being the greatest living representative of the critics for anything, Mrs. Potter's Juliet is a historic revelation. Of course seeing is believing, but there is not the least

reputation of being the greatest living representa-
